1. What about the visit worked well? What were some of the highlights?

Agenda was well thought out. The times given to us to reflect as a team were very valuable.

2. What did you learn at the visit?

High expectations for all are evident. All teachers and administration are invested! Support has to be top-down. I am so impressed with obvious message that this school focuses on student learning. The learning targets with daily assessments were very exciting to see.

3. Were there any surprises?

I am not leaving here thinking that our obstacles are too large to overcome. I am more empowered to continue ~~my~~<sup>our</sup> journey! It was rewarding to hear <sup>how</sup> our concerns would be solved by your knowledgeable staff.

Stanley-Bajd has an amazing staff!

4. As a result of this visit, what information/processes might you take back to your school?

Learning Target / Exit Slips
Testing Days

5. What could have made your visit more successful? What advice might you offer the Host School for future visits?

Wouldn't change a thing. Perfect.

6. Other Comments

Thank you so much.

1. What about the visit worked well? What were some of the highlights?

I liked how you explained what you do at Stanley-Boyd. Then, it was great to see it actually performed in the classroom. You definitely practice what you preach.

2. What did you learn at the visit?

You have a collaborative staff that is focused on student achievement. We saw this in every classroom with the target learning objective listed.

3. Were there any surprises?

Excellent food!

4. As a result of this visit, what information/processes might you take back to your school?

I hope my principal puts 1 lesson plan per grade level at the elementary level. I will also look at using some of your scheduling ideas.

5. What could have made your visit more successful? What advice might you offer the Host School for future visits?

You shared a tremendous amount of information. I do not think you could have done anything more. Thank you for your hospitality and guidance.
