

Stanley-Boyd
School District's Professional Development Day

Jan. 28, 2013

...Where all students learn at a high level!

Welcome Sarah Nelson, Consultant from DPI/Wisconsin RtI Center!
And...a huge Thank You to the teacher leaders who helped organize and facilitate our professional development day!

	ELA Teachers Grades 4K-8	Grade 7-12 and Encore Teachers
7:30 a.m.	Breakfast in the HS cafeteria.	Breakfast in the HS cafeteria.
8:00-8:30	District Overview for all teachers in the HS IMC.	District Overview for all teachers in the HS IMC.
8:30-9:30	RtI Overview with Sarah Nelson followed by document introduction by Grade 1 teachers.	A closer look at the core ELA standards; facilitated by Kayleigh, Amanda and Tabitha.
9:30-10:15	Grade level creation of instructional level protocols, beginning with the universal level, facilitated by Sarah Nelson.	Text complexity; facilitated by Amanda and Laura
10:15-11:30	Grade level creation of selected level protocols.continued.
11:30-12:15	Lunch on your own.	Lunch on your own.
12:30-1:15	Review of universal/selected level protocols Discussion of intensive level protocols.	A buffet of ELA Strategies; facilitated by Tanya, Mary, and Kari. 12:30-1:30
1:15-2:00	Creation of diagnostic assessment document at the selective level and the selected level literacy interventions document. Review of grade level decision rules.	Small groups collaborate to develop ELA activities and lessons; facilitated by teacher leaders who attended the Doug Buehl workshops. (see separate schedule) 1:30-3:30
2:00-2:30	So what now? How are these tools being used to guide instruction and document student interventions?continued.
2:30-3:30	Grade level teams complete work on the grade level documents, if necessary.	...complete examples of activities/lessons and send electronically to Laura for an idea-bank.